Few of our Achievements & Success Stories

IITM Neonatal unit model

iKix takes pride in stating that we have made a 3D model of the Neonatal Ambulance based on design and recommendations from Healthcare Technology Innovation Centre – HTIC, IIT Madras.

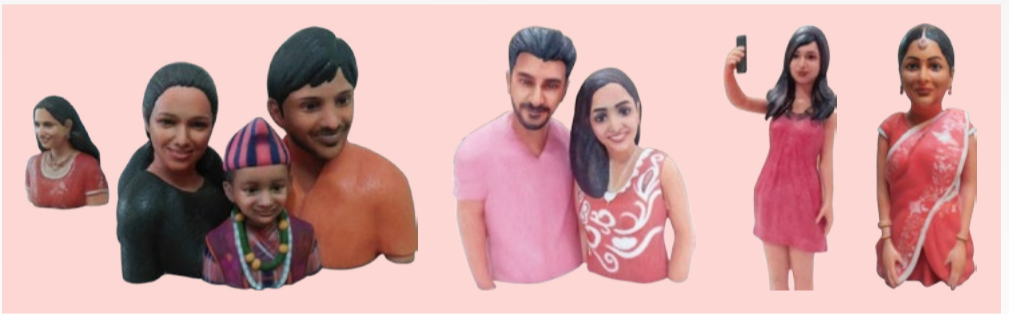

The ambulance are being deployed by the Government of Tamil Nadu to transport new born babies that require special care.

The model comprises of an incubator in standing position, exhaust fan with shutter, EMT seat with sliding door, foldable head set and an oxygen cylinder, enclosed in an acrylic enclosure & inclusive of internal lighting.

CHARACTER MODELS

Recently iKix has made the 3D models of figurines for a client based at Chennai.

INDUSTRY NEWS

Airbus unveils 'Light Rider' Motorcycle.

Aerospace giant Airbus Group has unveiled the stunning 'Light Rider' electric motorcycle that uses state-of-the-art 3D Printing techniques to strip weight.

The numbers are breathtaking. The whole motorcycle weighs in at just 35kg (77lb) and the frame weighs an incredible 6kg (13.2lb). That's because it is 3D printed from a fine aluminium alloy powder that has been printed to create the stunning exoskeleton. It looks like a work of art, rather than a motorcycle, and there's an organic feel to the frame that owes a little to biological cellular structure.
